AN AGGIE:

Speaks to every cadet and professor at every opportunity.

Learns the college songs and yells as soon as possible.

Thanks the driver of a car who has given him a ride and helps the driver if he has trouble while the cadet is with him.

Attends all athletic contests that are possible for him to attend and backs the team through thick and thin.

Keeps his hat off while in the mess hall.

Keeps his shoes shined, his hair combed, and his uniform pressed.

Never “razzes” a referee or umpire.

Never yells rude, insulting, or noisy remarks at girls passing in front of halls, and stays from the window when not fully dressed.

Stands at attention and uncovers when “Taps” is being played.

Dresses neatly and is a gentleman while on week-end trips or corps trips.

Is honest in class room regardless of what he may see others, who are careless of their honor, doing.

Realizes that someone is making a sacrifice to give him the opportunity to be at A. and M. and consequently makes use of his time to the best advantage by conscientious work whether it be his study time or his leisure. He plays hard and studies hard.

Respects college property.

Respects the rights of others in a theatre by not talking and laughing aloud at the wrong time.

“Realizes that someone is making a sacrifice to give him the opportunity to be at A. and M. and consequently makes use of his time to the best advantage by conscientious work whether it be study time or leisure. He plays hard and studies hard.”

The Aggie War Hymn
Good-bye to texas university
So long to the orange and the white
Good luck to dear old Texas Aggies
They are the boys that show the real old fight
"The eyes of Texas are upon you . . ."
That is the song they sing so well
So good-bye to texas university
We’re going to beat you all to
