ADVISING SYLLABUS

Advising Syllabus

To view our department's degree plan individually, please go to our website at: <https://hlkn.tamu.edu/academics/>

Purpose of Academic Advising

The primary purpose of academic advising at Texas A&M University is to assist students in their development of meaningful educational plans that are compatible with their personal abilities and goals. The ultimate responsibility for making decisions about personal goals and educational plans rests with the individual student.

Appointment Policies

Appointment Scheduling

- You can schedule an appointment online at Navigate (Howdy > Navigate > Get Advising) or via telephone (979) 845-4530.
- Appointments must be made a minimum of one (1) day in advance and no earlier than one week in advance.
- Advising appointments are scheduled for 30 minutes.
- Students will be sent a ZOOM link when they schedule their appointment through Navigate.
- If you prefer to take advantage of our virtual walk-in hours, you can use the link below for virtual walk-in anytime Friday between 8:30 AM to 11:00 AM. Link: <https://tamu.zoom.us/j/99627188054>

Virtual Advising

All appointments are currently held via Zoom. If an in-person appointment is requested, special arrangements can be made (preferably with ample time before the meeting date and time).

Appointment Etiquette

- Arrive on time for your appointment
- We recommend you have your camera on to foster a more personalized interaction and connection with your academic advisor
- Wear appropriate attire - as you would for in person meetings or class
- Sign into ZOOM using your correct full first and last name
- Have an appropriate background
- Come prepared to the advising appointment with questions and/or concerns

No Shows and Cancellations

- If you fail to show up for your scheduled appointment, it will be recorded as a "No Show"
- If you arrive for your appointment more than fifteen (15) minutes after your scheduled appointment, it will be recorded as a "No Show"
- If you cannot make it to your scheduled appointment, please call the front desk or cancel through Navigate. Please be sure to cancel at least 24 hours in advance to allow other students an opportunity to utilize that time-slot.
- After three (3) "No Shows", you will no longer be able to schedule an appointment. To regain appointment scheduling privileges, you must visit our office in person and provide an explanation of why you accumulated 3 "No Shows".

Email Etiquette

- E-mail is the primary method of communication utilized by your academic advisor; therefore, we ask that you consider the following when sending an e-mail:
- Always include your first & last name and UIN
 - Include a brief reason for your e-mail in the subject
 - Do not reply to a mass email, begin a new email
 - Do not forward your email to another account (i.e. yahoo, g-mail, etc.)
 - Only email advisors from your TAMU account
 - Please allow at least 24 hours for a response
 - Do not use abbreviated texting language
 - Use appropriate, professional language
 - Do not resend the same email multiple times

Key Dates

- Search "Academic Calendar" on the Texas A&M website for information regarding:
- Registration dates
 - Drop and withdrawal deadlines
 - Campus holidays
 - Final exams
 - Grade postings

Busy Times

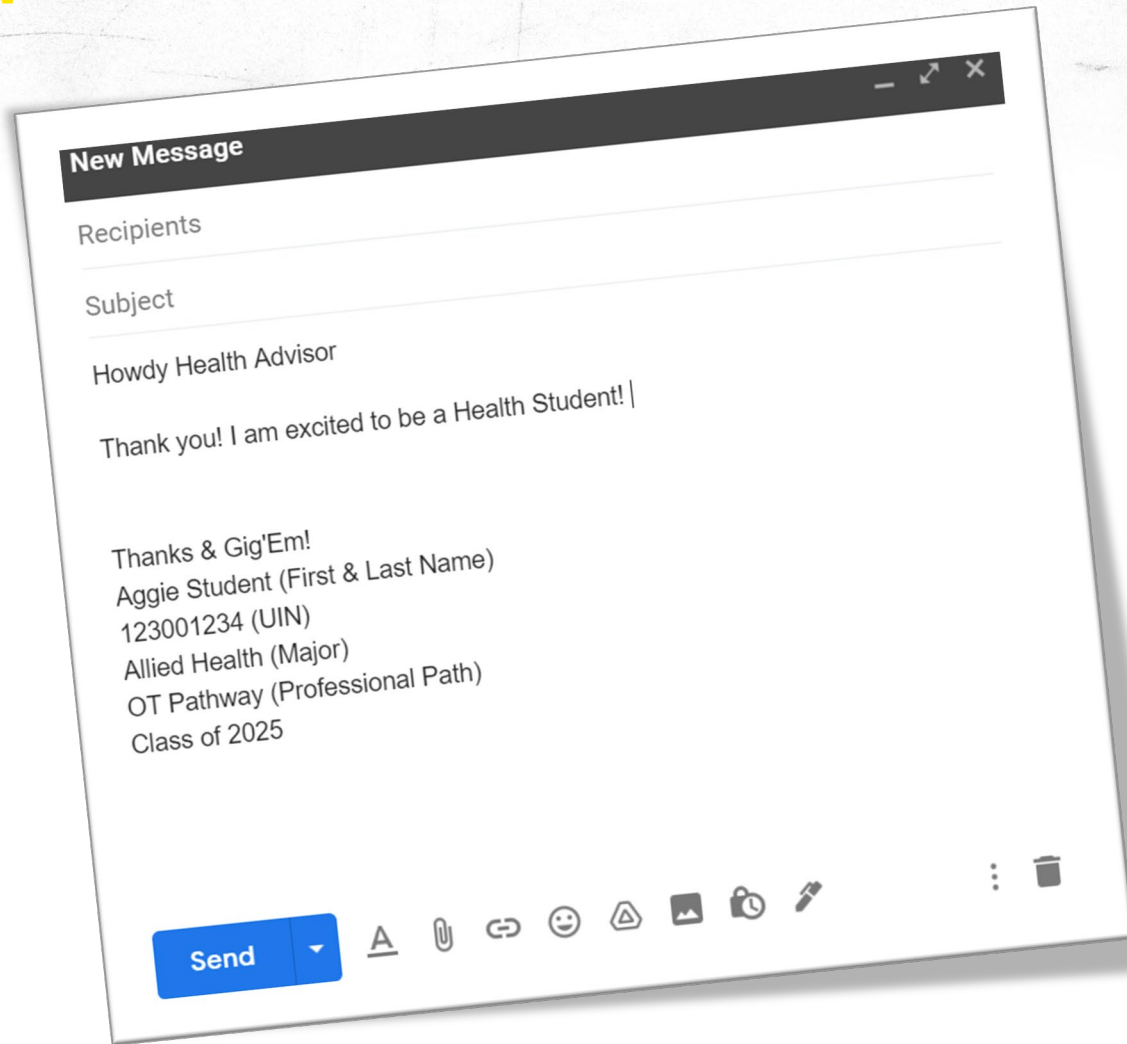

- Due to our volume of students, there certain times of the year when it may be harder to secure an appointment.
- Week before classes start
 - First week of classes
 - Around Q-Drop Deadline
 - Weeks before registration
 - Departmental Deadlines
 - End of Semester Processing

OFFICIAL TAMU EMAIL

Check daily! (several times)

DO NOT forward your A&M emails to your personal email address.

Information to include in emails:

- Name
- UIN
- Allied Health or Community Health
- Professional Path (Nursing, OT, PT, etc.)

Allow time for response

- Generally it takes 24-48 hours for a response.
